

It will transform your experience: you will earn respect and be more readily welcomed by local people. Be tolerant and respect diversity – observe social and cultural traditions and practices.

Open Mind to Culture & Traditions

Respect Human Rights

Exploitation in any form conflicts with the fundamental aims of tourism. The sexual exploitation of children is a crime punishable in the destination or at the offender's home country.

Preserve Natural Environments

Protect wildlife and habitats and do not purchase products made from endangered plants or animals.

Respect Cultural Resources

Activities should be conducted with respect for the artistic, archaeological and cultural heritage.

Purchase Local Goods & Services

Your trip can contribute to economic and social development. Purchase local handicrafts and products to support the local economy using the principles of fair trade.

Inform on Health & Safety

Inform yourself about the destination's current health situation and access to emergency and consular services prior to departure and be assured that your health and personal security will not be compromised. Make sure that your specific requirements (diet, accessibility, medical care) can be fulfilled before you decide to travel this destination.

Learn About Your Destination

Learn as much as possible about your destination and take time to understand the customs, norms and traditions. Avoid behaviour that could offend the local population.

Familiarise Yourself With The Laws

Familiarize yourself with the laws so that you do not commit any act considered criminal by the law of the country visited. Refrain from all trafficking in illicit drugs, arms, antiques, protected species and products or substances that are dangerous or prohibited by regulations.

Thank You
For Being A
Responsible Tourist
